Boers Under Botha Inflict Heavy Loss on British Troops.

COL. BENSON DEAD

Rear Guard Overtaken at Brakenlaagte, Near Bethel, During a Mist.

TWO GUNS CAPTURED

London, Nov. 2.—The disaster at Brakenlaagte to Benson's force has cast a cloud over the reception to the Duke and Duchess of York. The streets, however, are decorated and the crowds gathered at an early hour to welcome the heir home. The royal train left Portsmouth amid a big ovation.

THE BOERS KILL 67 BRITISH

Battle Fought Near Bethel in Which England Suffered Defeat

London, Nov. 2.—Lord Kitchener has reported to the war office a disaster to the British near Bethel, Eastern Transvaal, in which two guns were lost, nine officers were killed and thirteen wounded, fifty-eight men were killed and 156 wounded. The following is the text of Lord Kitchener's dispatch: "I have just heard of a severe attack made on the rear guard of Colonel Benson's column, when about twenty miles northwest of Bethel, near Brakenlaagte, during a thick mist. The strength of the enemy is reported to have been near a thousand. They rushed two guns with the rear guard, but it is uncertain whether they were able to remove them. I fear our casualties were heavy. Colonel Benson was wounded, but not severely. A relieving column will reach him this morning."

Casualties Are 160.
Later Lord Kitchener telegraphed as follows:

"Colonel Barter, who marched from the constabulary line yesterday, reached Benson's column early this morning (Friday) unopposed. He reports that Col. Benson died of his wounds. The other casualties are the following: Killed—Col. E. Guinness, Major F. D. Murray, Captains M. W. Lindsay and F. T. Thorold, Lieutenants E. V. I. Brooke and R. E. Shepherd, and Second Lieutenant A. J. Corlett. Capt. Eyre Lloyd," he continues, "died of his wounds." Lord Kitchener then gives the names of the thirteen other officers who were wounded, most of them severely, and announces that fifty-four noncommissioned officers and men were killed and 160 wounded, adding that four of the latter have since died of their wounds.

PROMISES A GOOD SEASON FOR DEER

Northern Wisconsin Hunters Are Confident of Having Good Sport After November 10.

Mosinee, Wis., Nov. 2.—When the deer season opens Nov. 10 local sportsmen are confident of excellent sport. Farmers and others who are in a position to know state that deer are unusually plentiful. This is probably due to the fact that during the closed season the deer were unmolested.

The logging operations of the past few years have converted what was once a forest into thickets of pine and hemlock. The change makes this locality an ideal hunting ground, and as a result, deer seem to be increasing each year. The new season will also do away with the use of dogs.

WILLSON WILL WAIT FIVE DAYS

Madison Man Would Rather Put Off His Wedding Five Days Than To Pay Two Dollars.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—Special—Rather than pay two dollars to an attorney, William H. Willson, an employe at the Fuller & Johnson works, who recently advertised for a wife, will wait five days to wed Miss Ellen Hartshorn, who came from England in response to his advertisement.

Willson applied to Judge Donovan of the circuit court yesterday for a permit which would enable him to wed at once, but the judge refused on learning that the lady had only seen her future lord for the first time on Thursday.

Willson then applied to Judge Carpenter of the county court, and the latter sent him to District Attorney Hudgeon to draw the papers.

When Willson found that a fee of $2 for the attorney's services would be necessary, he concluded to wait the five days.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 2.—Oshkosh lumbermen state that there is going to be a very large amount of logging carried on in the woods of northern Wisconsin and Michigan this winter. The high price the finished product has stimulated operations in this line and a very busy season is assured. Employment will be furnished to a vast army of men in the woods this winter. Already Oshkosh lumbermen are beginning to leave the city for the camps.

BRIGANDS PLAY FOR BIG STAKES; REFUSE ANY LESS THAN $110,000

Uncle Sam's Government Unable So Far to Connect Turkey with the Outrage of Miss Stone—Bandits May Murder the Captives.

Washington, Nov. 2.—An indisposition continues to be manifested by the brigands holding Miss Stone to surrender the woman until they have received the full amount of the ransom they have demanded. Despite the arguments used by the American diplomats and missionaries who are conducting the negotiations, the brigands have not reduced the sum they originally fixed nor have they intimated any intention of doing so. It is evident they believe it can be raised and, having played for a large stake, they do not propose to relinquish a portion of it. Mr. Eddy has been furnished with authority to pay over to Miss Stone's abductors $65,000 the moment she is surrendered, but through the missionaries he is endeavoring to induce them to accept a smaller sum. The way in which Mr. Eddy has been conducting the difficult negotiations is entirely satisfactory to Secretary Hay, who has approved the measures he has adopted.

May Teach Turkey a Lesson.

While the question of demanding an indemnity from Turkey has not been considered on account of the lack of evidence showing Turkey's responsibility, officials are watching the effect of the naval demonstration which France will make in Turkish waters because of the lesson it will teach.

May Murder the Captives.

Sofia, Nov. 2.—The best method of transmitting the ransom demanded by the brigands for the release of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary, and of assuring the safety of the captives, are the matters now engaging the attention of the Samakov missionaries, who are negotiating with the kidnappers. It is felt that unusual precautions are necessary in order to safeguard Miss Stone and the others, as there undoubtedly is danger that the captives will be murdered after the ransom is paid.

LAW TO PUNISH TREASON BY DEATH

The Philippine Commission Has Drafted an Act—Penalty Prescribed Is Death.

Manila, Nov. 2.—The Philippine commission has drafted an act against treason and sedition. The penalty prescribed for treason is death, and the act is framed to include those persons giving aid and comfort to the insurgents. Persons who utter seditious words or speeches, or who write libels against the United States government, are punishable by the imposition of a fine of $2,000 of imprisonment or ten years is fixed as the penalty. Foreigners are placed under the same laws, as are Americans and natives.

SMALL FEET ARE NO LONGER A BAR

Mme. Wu, Wife of Chinese Ambassador, Drops Odd Practices.

San Francisco, Nov. 2.—Fashion is less capricious in China than in any other part of the world but even there a sentiment is growing in favor of allowing women's feet to grow to a larger and more nearly normal size than has hitherto been the practice. In China the small foot has been for woman the mark of artistic caste, but it seems a change is coming, slowly of course, as all changes come in China, but perceptibly. This is on the authority of Mme. Wu wife of the Chinese minister at Washington, who has just returned from a visit to her oriental home.

GROWING CROPS ARE IN GOOD SHAPE

Rain Needed in Some Sections to Enable Late Seeded Grains to Withstand the Winter.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Following is the monthly crop report of the weather bureau, issued today:

The month has been mild and for the most part drier than usual, the weather conditions being generally favorable for farming operations. Rain is generally needed, however, over the Middle, South Atlantic and Gulf districts, and also in the central valleys and Middle Rocky Mountain region, drought being severe in western Texas and in the Upper Ohio valley. Little damage by frost has occurred. On the Pacific coast the month has been favorable, except in California, where rains have caused some damage.

The conditions have been favorable for gathering corn, and husking has made favorable progress.

WOMEN RAISED $21,980.

BIG MAJORITY FOR LOW IS IN SIGHT

Fusion Candidate for Mayor of New York Will Win—Tammany is on the Run.

New York, Nov. 2.—Reform is in the air and the municipal campaign has taken on the complexion of a landslide for Seth Low, the fusion candidate for mayor and the entire fusion ticket, with the possible exception of Justice Jerome, candidate for district attorney. Jerome is honest, fearless, but decidedly indiscreet and impolitic, and fusion leaders realize that the "fighting justice's" attacks on Platt, Whitney and other big New Yorkers, in this case at least, were unreasonable and therefore harmful.

But not even Jerome's indiscreetness and talk can stop the wave that is gathering strength every moment to sweep Tammany from power and give the city a business like administration. Low is a decided favorite at 10 to 8, and Tammany money is scarce.

The county of New York will give Low and the entire fusion ticket 30,000 plurality, according to careful estimates made by the republican county committee.

Every estimate made by the republicans, the Citizens' Union and the Greater New York Democracy, shows that the entire fusion ticket will be elected and that the county candidates will run little if any behind Low. The majority of the fusion county ticket on the average will, according to present indications, be not less than 25,000. It may be 40,000 or even 60,000. All the fusion campaign managers say that the tide against Tammany is so strong that accurate estimates are impossible. Everything indicates a landslide and the anti-Tammany majority for every man on the fusion ticket may break a record.

PRESIDENT ADAMS VERY ILL

Former Head of Wisconsin University Postpones California Trip.

STATE GAME LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

La Crosse Judge Decides on the Measure Allowing Wardens to Enter Express Cars.

La Crosse, Wis., Nov. 2.—Route Agent W. E. Rankin of the Adams Express company was discharged today by Judge Brindley in the county court. He was arrested, charged with assaulting Deputy Game Warden H. C. Schultz, who attempted to enter a Burlington car to make a seizure of contraband game. Rankin was defended on the ground that he did not know Schultz was an officer. The court held, however, that Schultz had a right to enter the car. This is a victory for the state law, as it was formerly stated by the express company that its constitutionality would be tested.

DOUBLE MURDER AND A SUICIDE

Amsterdam, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Fred Bankert, a half-witted German, entered the home of Wm. Green last night and going to the bedroom of Green and his wife, shot both, killing the husband and fatally injuring the wife. He crushed the couple's skulls with a hatchet and then shot himself to death. Bankert was recently released from the penitentiary where he served a term for shooting Mrs. Green before her marriage.

William Byrne is back from an extended trip through the west.

CANNOT PREVENT THE FALL OF HAIL

The Chief of the Weather Bureau Investigates the French Method of Shooting.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau and his assistants combat the theory of efficiency of shooting as a means of destroying hailstorms and say none of the reports of experiments in Europe have shaken their opposition. "Prof. Moore will issue a report on the subject, elaborating his views of the investigations and experiments along these lines. He denies that shooting has any effectiveness in destroying hailstorms or in bringing about rain, despite a rather prevalent belief, and says it is not worth while for the vineyard authorities of this country to adopt such measures as those proposed in France for the protection of the viticulturists.

JUDGE A. L. COLLINS DEAD AT MENASHA

Prominent in the Early Political History of Wisconsin—He Was 91 Years Old.

Menasha, Wis., Nov. 2.—Alexander Lynn Collins, who was the Whig opponent of Nelson Dewey for gubernatorial honors in 1849, died at his home in the town of Menasha last night at the age of 91 years. His last hours were peaceful and his death was simply due to old age. Funeral services will be held at the home next Sunday. Interment will be at Forest Home in Milwaukee.

A. L. Collins was born in Oneida county, New York, March 17, 1811. He came to Wisconsin in 1842 and resided at Madison for thirteen years. He was admitted to the bar by the original supreme court of the state of Wisconsin. He was a member of the first class which applied for admission, and among his classmates were Moses M. Strong of Mineral Point and George B. Smith of Madison. He was engaged in practice at Madison for several years the firm being Keyes, Smith & Collins.

In 1846 Mr. Collins was a member of the territorial council, and two years later he was the Whig candidate for congress. In 1849 Mr. Collins was on the Whig ticket for gubernatorial candidate honors as the opponent of Nelson Dewey. He was chairman of the state central committee of his party for several years.

In the national convention in Baltimore in 1852 Mr. Collins was a delegate and voted for Daniel Webster. At the end of the fifty-fourth ballot the Wisconsin man left the convention, disgusted because of the assembly's refusal to vote for Webster.

BIG FAIR AT BUFFALO ENDS TODAY; FINAL CELEBRATION AT MIDNIGHT

Work of Wrecking Buildings Begins on Monday—Many Exhibits Will Be Moved to Charleston.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 2.—With a farewell day celebration, the Pan-American exposition will come to a close tonight with a blaze of fireworks. It is expected the final day will break all records in daily attendance and that 200,000 people will be on hand to see the Rainbow City go out of existence.

Although the Pan-American Exposition has not proved to be a financial success, its purposes in stimulating the commercial relations between countries of the North and South Americas are said by President John C. Milburn to be of such a character as to be far reaching in results. Up to last night the total attendance has been 8,200,000.

Work of wrecking the buildings will be begun next week. Director of Works Carlton has arranged to open bids for wrecking on Monday. The firm which demolished the World's Fair has entered a bid. One of the things bidders will have to reckon with will be the removal of the electric light plant which has made the Exposition famous as a city of light. Many of the exhibitors will pack

MAHER WILL RIDE THE KING'S HORSES

American Jockey Engaged for $35,000 for Season—Highest Amount Ever Paid a Saddle Boy.

Newmarket, England, Nov. 2.—Danny Maher, the little American jockey, is now the premier rider of the world.

He has been engaged to ride the horses in charge of Trainers T. Blackwell and Richard Marsh at the combined salary of $35,000 for the next season—the highest amount ever paid any jockey for a year's work in the saddle. Richard Marsh trains for King Edward VII.

The engagement of Maher as jockey is a tactful way of expressing the king's opinion that he is not prejudiced against American riders.

WIPE OUT ANARCHY

Daughters of the American Revolution Will Form a Children's Society.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 2.—At the session of the state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution today, the question "Shall representation in the Continental Congress be reduced?" presented by Mrs. Elroy M. Avery of Cleveland, Ohio, opened a warm discussion.

Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, wife of the Indiana senator, and president of the D. A. R., is in favor of every chapter having a representation in the eleventh continental congress of the D. A. R. to be held at Washington in 1902, over which she will preside.

The D. A. R. will form a children's society the object of which will be to wipe out anarchy.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH WELCOMES PASTOR

Warm Greeting to Rev. James Churm and Presiding Elder McChesney Last Evening.

If the Rev. E. S. McChesney and the Rev. James Churm and their families do not feel that they have come to dwell among a hospitable people, it certainly is not the fault of the welcome which has been given them by the people of the First M. E. church and by representative members of the other churches of the city. The reception given by the First church people, under the auspices of their efficient Ladies' Aid society, was as brilliant success and was enjoyed by several hundred people who have many excellent and pleasant reasons for remembering last evening with special delight.

Among the guests who gathered at the invitation of the Ladies' Aid society to greet the new presiding elder and pastor of the church and their families, were the pastors and many members from other churches as well as almost the entire congregation of the First church. On the arrival of the guests, they were welcomed by members of the reception committee and invited to take seats in the main church auditorium during a very brief program.

W. J. Cannon presided during the brief program while musical numbers included some very pretty selections by a mandolin orchestra, consisting of George Baumann, Harry Haggart and Henry Baldwin, and a well rendered vocal selection, "Onward and Upward" by the male quartet including Dr. F. F. Richards, E. E. VanPool, H. E. Cary and Archie Crawford.

Miss Florence, a talented young reader, recited "Ashes on the Slide" very prettily and in a manner which won much praise from her delighted hearers. A short and spicy address of welcome was given by Mr. W. J. Cannon after which Rev. Churm spoke on the "Relation of the Church to the Presiding Elder" and Rev. McChesney gave some of his ideas on "How Can the People Help a Pastor?" Both gentlemen spoke in a semi-humorous vein and interwove their excellent suggestions, with amusing stories.

Mr. Cannon then requested Revs. Churm and McChesney and their families to take their places with the members of the reception committee behind the altar railing and then the guests passed around the church giving everyone an opportunity to meet the new comers personally. Introductions were given by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Knights, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cary and Mrs. J. Findley Williams. The receiving line was quite an imposing one, including Rev. and Mrs. McChesney and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Churm and their daughter and three sons, the youngest having gone to sleep in time to avoid taking his share of the greetings.

It was the consensus of opinion that the First M. E. church had never been quite so handsomely decorated as it was last night. The pulpit platform and organ balcony were banked with ferns, palms and other potted plants in abundance high above which there was a pretty combination of bunting. The church parlors into which the guests were ushered after the introductions were over, was also handsomely decorated with bunting and cut flowers. In the center of the room was the long table at which the guests of honor were seated. This was prettily decorated in pink and white, bands of the two colors being looped from the central candelier to the four corners of the table. Chrysanthemums, roses and carnations were the floral decorations on this table. In addition to this, small tables were placed in the parlors as closely together as possible and each table was daintily spread, with a bouquet of choice flowers in the center.

The guests were seated at these tables for the enjoyment of the dainty refreshments which were prettily served by Mesdames Henshaw, O'Brien, F. T. Richards, Louis A. Williams, Will Bates, and Misses Alice Clithero, Florence Rider, Elva Crawford, Fannie Clithero, Huebel, Richardson, Alice Sanner and Cora Wilhelm. The serving of the refreshments was under the personal supervision of Mrs. E. J. Bennett, who was chairman of the refreshment committee and to whom, as president of the Ladies' Aid society, much of the responsibility of the reception fell.

While many of the prominent members of the church assisted in welcoming the guests last evening and in making every one feel at home, the great success of the reception was largely due to the following efficient committees who had it in charge: Program Committee—W. J. Cannon, Archie Crawford.

Reception Committee—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Knights and Mrs. H. E. Cary. Decorating Committee—Mrs. F. T. Richards, Mrs. Louis Williams. Refreshment Committee—Mrs. E. J. Bennett, Mrs. Will Bates.

TOBACCO MARKETS.

Ohio.
The tobacco market is far from active, and only occasional deliveries of 1900 Zimmer are noted, the prices ranging from 6 to 10 cents through. Both packers and jobbers complain that only small sales are being made, manufacturers being extremely cautious, buying only for actual needs. The new crop is reported as curing satisfactorily, and some of it has already been contracted for at prices ranging from 10 to 11½ cents. At Miamisburg, Stroop & Shupart, have completed their new warehouse on the C. H. & D. railroad and have taken possession. Henry Long has sold his 1901 crop of Zimmer to W. J. Ball at a price stated to be 11½ cents.

New York.
In Baldwinsville and vicinity buyers are looking for old crop and are inspecting the new. The new is reported to be curing down nicely and is of good quality. Some of the large growers, however, are said to be having trouble with pole sweat, the tobacco having been hung too closely, and in several instances they have had to take out every alternate lath to allow sufficient air to the remainder. Considerable tobacco has changed hands at prices ranging from 7 to 14 cents in the bundle, but the general average is not much above 9 cents, at which price, indeed, most sales have been made. Albert Cahn, representing Elias Bach & Son, of New York City, was one of the principal buyers during the week, although there were numerous other purchasers whose aggregate deals amounted to considerable.

Pennsylvania.
Last week turned out to be an unusually lively one in the case of tobacco trade, about 2,500 cases having changed hands. Some of these goods were of '98 and '99, but there was a fair sprinkling of 1900 tobacco also. One lot of the latter had been put through an unusually heavy sweat, with the result that it has been pronounced an unusually good lot. Should there be a lively trade for several weeks to come, there can be no doubt it would go far towards opening the season for buying this year's tobacco.

St. Louis.
During the week a slight falling off in the volume of trade was noted. There is an unwarranted hesitancy in buying and purchasers are mainly taking only enough goods for immediate needs. No serious complaints regarding business conditions are heard and collections continue exceptionally good.

The G. J. Helmerichs Leaf Tobacco Co report a very fair business, and have the entire traveling force on the road at present. They are continually receiving extensive shipments of tobacco, and at the time of my call were taking in a car load of Wisconsin.

Messrs. Rockel, Woeldike & Co. report that their packing of 1900 Wisconsin sampled out to their entire satisfaction and that they are in a position to offer some extra fine goods.

New England.
The sales of tobacco are small and far between. Everybody seems to be holding off for future developments. The damp weather will probably bring all the early cut tobacco into case, and large quantities will be stripped. Growers are cautioned against allowing their tobacco to become too damp when taken down and to refrain from using water on it. The secretary of agriculture and his experts want to manage the sale of the tent grown Sumatra which they have been experimenting with, so that exact information regarding the prices obtained may be included in the report of the experiment and the exact value of the tenting process ascertained. Their plan is to advertise for bids, with a provision allowing a rejection of any or all bids if deemed inadequate. It is proposed to hold the sale early, so that if prices obtained are favorable an increased acreage can be planted next year. The farmers are not all in favor of the plan, however, and it is not known under what authority the secretary of agriculture proposes to act as sales agent.—U. S. Tobacco Journal.

Reform at County Jail.
Sheriff Maltress has inaugurated a reform at the county jail which is not much relished by the prisoners committed to that institution. It has always been the custom to allow the prisoners to have tobacco, when they had money to buy it. This has all been done away with and a convicted man gets nothing to help him pass away the time. To some of the men addicted to the use of tobacco it is a greater hardship than being confined in a cell. The sheriff thinks that this mode of treatment will have the effect of keeping some of the regular boarders away.

Deeds For Right of Way.
With the exception of one piece the entire right of way of the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric line has been deeded to the company. The piece to which the deed has not yet been secured has some minor heirs and it will be necessary for some probate court proceedings to be carried out before the deed can be given.

Grading Going On Swiftly.
R. W. Hill and H. H. Jackson were up from Beloit this morning on matters connected with the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville electric line. The grading work along the route is going on nicely and will be about finished by the time snow flies. Mr. Jackson told Chief Hogan that if any more members of the Whitehall club came down there for work, they were going to dig a big hole and bury them. Chief Hogan says they have his permission to bury the whole bunch if they can get them that close to work.

New Atlantic Type Engine.
The new Atlantic type engines for the Janesville & Sotheastern passenger trains will be up in service upon the line in about ten days. A number of the fifty new engines ordered by the road some time ago have been delivered and are now being broken in over on the Milwaukee and Chicago division. They are big engines and are built for heavy trains and fast time. There will be no excuse for the trains on the new line being late when they get the new engines in commission.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

It is seldom that English humor is thoroughly appreciated in America, but there are exceptions in literature and on the stage. "Our Boys," "Charley's Aunt," and "The Private Secretary" enjoyed long runs on both sides of the water. "A Brace of Partridges" bids fair to outrival these famous successes. The play by the cleverness of its plot and brightness of dialogue appeals to all classes of play goers, and Mr. Reeves-Smith's acting is so easy and spontaneously humorous that the reason of his great reputation is apparent to every one. It will be presented at the Myers Grand tonight.

Theater goers in the principal cities are turning out en masse this season to witness the grandest production of "Pudd'nhead Wilson" the country has ever seen. Shipman Brothers' superb company have won golden praise by the general excellence of their work and the elaborate scenic effects have also added much to the success of the play. At Cincinnati on the night of Oct. 13, when the play opened there for a week's engagement the house was crowded to the doors, 1,927 persons paying to witness the performance. Hundreds were turned away for lack of room. Mr. William S. Gill is presented in the title role and his support is most evenly balanced and possessed of a rare order of merit. This production, complete in every respect, is underlined for an early appearance in this city and the same spontaneity of affection will no doubt be lavished on it here as the master work of the master humorist of America, as has characterized all the performances this season.

Mary Manning closed her engagement in "Janice Meredith" at the Colonial Theater, in Boston, Saturday, the 19th inst. She is now touring through New England. She will visit Buffalo where she made her debut as a star last season, Nov. 21st. From Pittsburgh, where she opens on Nov. 25 for one week, she will proceed directly west, reaching Salt Lake City Dec. 20th.

Andrew Mack in "Tom Moore," has scored a hit at the Walnut street theater in Philadelphia, where he closes his engagement tonight. He will begin a return engagement in New York City, Nov. 25. His impersonation of the Irish poet is highly commended and his work in this part indicates that his ambition to become a second John Brougham is well founded. In artistic ability which had not been credited to him till the present season.

In writing "The Liberty Bells," Harry B. Smith eliminated the chorus usually seen in musical comedies on the assumption that a small number of pretty girls actually doing something on the stage are more attractive than a large number of "merry-merries" who are merely automatic lay figures. Therefore, there is no chorus in "The Liberty Bells," but nineteen parts are played by young women who possess a wide reputation for personal beauty and who have been the highest salaried chorus girls in New York during the last three years.

Frank McKee has engaged Edwin Arden to play the leading role in Ramsey Morris's new comedy, "Ninety-and-Nine," founded on Ira D. Sankey's hymn, which will be produced at the Academy of Music in New York next October. The theme of this story is the redemption of the one sheep wandered from the fold. The piece will, therefore, possess a very powerful religious motif. A great mechanical effect, new to the stage, will be one of the features of the production.

Klaw & Ehrhanger's production of Gen. Lew Wallace's "Ben-Hur" will remain at the Illinois theater in Chicago but two more weeks, closing its engagement there Saturday evening, Nov. 16th. The following Monday evening it will begin a three weeks' engagement at the Olympic Theater in St. Louis. Brief stays in three other cities will follow.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had have the attacks been that we feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains no opium, or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by People's Drug Company and King's Pharmacy.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cure biliousness, constipation and headache. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by People's Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy.

BOYS BROTHERHOOD GIVE A BANQUET

Second Annual Event at the Baptist Church Last Evening Was a Happy Occasion.

The second annual banquet at the Boy's Brotherhood of the Baptist church was held in the church parlors last evening and was a very happy occasion. The parlors were handsomely decorated with festoons of pink and white bunting beneath which the prettily spread tables were placed in the form of a cross. Potted asparagus ferns and umbrella plants were placed at intervals along the center of the table, the jars which held them being concealed under fancy coverings of pink crepe paper. Even the dainty paper napkins carried out the pink and white color scheme.

The hour set for the banquet was 7 o'clock and shortly after that time the members of the Brotherhood and their young lady friends gathered around the tables and enjoyed an appetizing two course supper. The tables were waited upon by Misses Clara Shurtliff, May Felton, Kittle Stoddard and Irene Van Vranken, who took entire charge of the supper and the decorations. The young ladies to whom the Boys' Brotherhood is largely indebted for a pleasant evening, were assisted by G. A. Shurtliff, who made the delicious cocoa and superintended the serving.

After the supper there was a short program of toasts Rev. Richard M. Vaughan presiding as toastmaster, Frank Nelson, the manly young president of the Brotherhood responded to the toast, "The Youngest of the Presidents" and after giving a glowing eulogy of Theodore Roosevelt, the speaker told some incidents which illustrate the fearless manhood of President Roosevelt.

The subject assigned to Floyd Davis was "The Last Book I Read" and he gave a concise and interesting account of a boy's book of adventure. LeRoy Eller responded neatly to the toast, "The Girls" by giving Chauncey Depew's toast to the ladies, "The ladies, God bless them. We can't get along without them." Victor Anderson was called upon to speak about "Out Door Sports" but excused himself and the program closed with a very well given toast "Our Country" by Harvey Bailey.

After the toasts, the balance of the evening was pleasantly spent in playing various games, Rev. Vaughan and the committee of young ladies assisting the guests to have a very jolly time.

GEN. RANDALL IS BUSY IN ALASKA

General George Randall, formerly of this city, and a brother of Charles Randall, has left Alaska, where he has been stationed for some time past and has entered upon his new duties. General Randall was recently placed in command of two departments, the departments of Columbia and of Alaska, with headquarters at Portland, Ore., where Gen. Randall now is.

The United States Transport, Seward, with Gen. Randall and his staff on board sailed from St. Michaels, Alaska, October 1 and reached Fort Townsend, Wash., enroute to Fort Vancouver, Portland, Oregon, Oct. 26. General Randall made the trip an inspection tour, visiting points all along the coast. While the Seward was in Valdez, Capt. Abercrombie made the connection of the new telegraph from Valdez to Circle City and the first through message to Alaska passed over the wires from Valdez. The Seward then sailed for Skagway and after Gen. Randall had inspected the troops stationed there, proceeded to Fort Townsend. Only two companies of soldiers will spend the winter in Western Alaska, portions being stationed at St. Michaels, Nome City and Egbert.

Every Exertion a Task

Every Care a Burden

There is failure of the strength to do and the power to endure; there is weakness "all over" that is persistent and constant.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Garland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—without appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own unsolicited statement.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. The earlier treatment is begun the better—begin it today.

TIRED BACKS!

Backs that are tired—weary—worn out.

Backs that are lame—weak—aching. Bad backs—sick backs—backs that ache like a toothache—that keep you awake nights with their never ceasing pains and aches—that are the burden of the day should not be neglected. Backache is the Kidneys' cry for help—neglect its warning means many Kidney ills—Urinary troubles—Diabetes—Bright's disease. There is a certain cure—

Doan's Kidney Pills

A modern remedy for every kidney ill—for kidneys only—goes right to the spot. Not an experiment but a proven cure endorsed by the people you know.

JANESVILLE PROOF.

SO. FRANKLIN ST.

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says:

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Afton, into the Rock River. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold, it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's drug store and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

LOCUST STREET.

Mr. Samuel Griffin, of 203 Locust St. journeyman carpenter, says: "I had a severe attack of la grippe and as a result weakness of the kidneys set in. The secretions from those organs were greatly disordered, annoyed me much at night and I seemed to have limited control of them. After finishing the treatment my kidneys were so strengthened that I could sleep all night without being disturbed. I am better now than I have been for years, and give all credit to Doan's Kidney Pills for bringing about this result."

SO. MAIN STREET.

Mr. H. W. Rodgers, carpenter, of 210 South Main street, says: "My wife had kidney complaint and rheumatism for five years, suffering a great deal from pain across the loins. Doan's Kidney Pills, sold by the People's Drug Co., brought much longer for and gratifying results. At first there was no visible change and she came to the conclusion that they were like all other remedies she had tried, but finally the aching and the distress in the small of her back disappeared."

SHARON STREET.

Veteran A. F. Lee, of 81 Sharon St., carpenter, says: "For twenty years it troubled me a great deal, many days I could hardly keep at my work, and by rights should have stayed at home and doctored. It was seldom that my back did not ache, and I have been laid up for three or four days at a stretch. When stooping or lifting sharp twinges penetrated the kidneys, the secretions from these organs were too frequent, and accompanied by pain. I used all kinds of remedies, but none gave permanent relief. Obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's Drug Co., I took them, and after the first three or four doses a noticeable change was brought about. I improved steadily from then on and on completing the treatment I was in good condition and am now well."

PLEASANT STREET.

Mr. H. P. Hanson, of 108 Pleasant St., engineer, employed at the Janesville Machine Co., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me all the good that could be expected and I recommend them to any one who may be troubled with a lame back or any kidney disorder. After procuring them at the People's drug store and taking them, I felt better, slept better, my back did not ache like it did, and I did not rise in the morning with a lame and sore back. I suffered from these symptoms for four or five years and I was more than pleased at the results obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Get what you ask for. Get DOAN'S. Don't accept something "just as good." Most druggists sell Doan's Kidney Pills and will give you what you call for. DOTH MY FATHER YET LIVE?

This question, so full of solicitude and filial affection, was asked by a man of forty, who for twenty years had been away from home and early associations.

His brothers, all older than himself, inspired by jealousy because he was the old gentleman's favorite, had sold him into bondage, and deceived the father by telling him that he was killed in the forest and devoured by wild beasts.

Time had wrought many changes and the brothers had forgotten the lad that they so cleverly hated. The boy had grown to man's estate, and being bright and intelligent, he found opportunities even as a slave to better his condition. Instead of mourning and complaining about his hard lot in life, and saying that fate had not dealt kindly with him, as too many boys today are doing, he set out to better his condition.

He possessed honesty of character coupled with ambition and he remembered, back in the years of the old home, the counsel and admonitions of a Godly father, and so in the loneliness of strange experiences in a foreign land, he adopted his father's God, and became strong in purpose, true to himself, soon gaining recognition as a trusted servant. As he developed with the strength of young manhood, he was promoted to positions of trust and great responsibility, until he gained the love and confidence of the king, who so delighted to honor him, because of his ability, that he placed the commercial and industrial business of the country in his hands, and clothed him with unlimited authority.

This self-made young man was endowed with peculiar knowledge and he was given to understand that, after a few years, famine, long continued, would desolate the land, and the warning was so significant that he acted wisely by preparing for it, and so he caused one-fifth of all the product of the soil to be stored in warehouses against the time of need.

The famine came, and after two years of drouth when every green thing was withered up and the earth was parched and dry, there came to him one day a company of ten men from a foreign land that was also desolated by famine, and they were recognized immediately as the brothers who had sold him into bondage twenty years before. They had no thought of meeting the boy, and when they were introduced to the man in royal attire, and made known their mission, which was to buy food, they were startled at the question, "Doth my father yet live?" And then there came to them the memory of the day when Joseph, the hated brother, was sold as a slave, and the lie that broke the old father's heart.

There is something about this filial love on the part of Joseph, whose love for the old home during all the years of adversity and prosperity had never waned, that is worthy of notice and more than a passing thought.

The boy was a slave and the father supposed him dead, and while the memory of the lad who had contributed so much to his happiness, and for whom he planned with so much hope, was still fresh in his mind, he had buried him, twenty years ago.

Cut off from communication, and surrounded in later years by wealth, and all that money could buy in the way of comfort and luxuries, with a home of his own, and children growing up about him, the boy remembered the old home, with all its homely surroundings.

The name, father, had always been a reverent name to him. He didn't say, "If the old man has any interest in me, why don't he send me some money?" He never thought of him as an old skinflint, too stingy to enjoy good health, and too much of a hayseed to venture away from home. He remembered him as a companion and thought of the pleasant strolls around the old farm, and how the old gentleman used to talk to him about goodness and greatness, and how he told him that along down the years, when he was out in life for himself, great opportunities would come to him, and if he was true to himself and to God, that he would win many of the prizes of life.

He thought about the last suit of clothes his father bought for him, and of the bright June morning when he brought them home and throwing him the package, said: "There, my boy; go try them on," and how proud he was when he stepped out of the bedroom, and the old gentleman looked him over and told him that he looked very nice, and then suggested that he go out where his brothers were herding sheep and see how they were getting on.

And then he remembered how he stopped on the hill and waved his hat to the old man who stood at the gate watching him.

That was twenty years ago, the last time he had seen his father, and here were the boys from home, some of them old men now. They had treated him cruelly, but all that was past and forgotten. Here they were from home, the home of his boyhood, and thought spanned the years and carried him back to the days of childhood and the love of a father.

A mother's love is always a sacred memory. Dedicated in verse and in prose, and sung in every land and language. Next to the love of God it is the purest and most self-sacrificing. Frequently more real than infinite love, because more tangible. But the love of a father is rarely mentioned.

The boy goes out from the American home with the feeling that the mother is all right, and he can always bank on her affection, but the father is an unknown quantity, too close to pay the bills without complaining, and too stingy to enjoy good health. The years go by and they drift apart. The old man grows feeble with age, and totters over into the grave. The boy comes home to the funeral, wears crepe on his hat because it is the custom, and hardly recognizes in the wrinkled face, as he stands by the casket, the father of his boyhood.

Is the picture overdrawn? Possibly, and yet too often true.

Who is to blame for these conditions? Both, but principally the father. The boy always knows where to find the mother, but he doesn't know much about the father. He is a visitor in the home, because of his busy life, frequently so full of care and anxiety that the boy never sees but one side of his nature, and that is not always inviting. The boy suffers in consequence. He needs the father's advice and counsel, just as much as she needs the mother's love and sympathy. As he approaches manhood, he needs the comradeship and companionship. Deprived of it he has met with a loss that time seldom restores.

If there were more Jacobs there would be more Josephs, whose first thought after prolonged absence would be, "Doth my father yet live?"

WILL IT RAIN TOMORROW?
 Hard to tell. If it does, it will be a poor day for golf.

But we need the rain, and it might prove a blessing.

Rainy Sundays are never pleasant, however much the rain is needed.

It is the rest day that everybody wants to enjoy according to individual fancy.

If it rains, and you can't play golf, ride a wheel, or drive a horse, what will you do?

You might sleep till noon, but there's the breakfast, and your wife can't eat alone, to say nothing about the disturbance of the maid in the kitchen.

The best time for a nap on a rainy Sunday is after dinner. Every condition is favorable, and your wife won't kick, because she's engaged in the same pastime.

The best thing to do on a rainy Sunday, or on a pleasant morning, for that matter, is to have a good breakfast about 8 o'clock, take a bath and read the paper.

About a quarter past ten take your wife on your arm and stroll down town. The bells that are ringing are an invitation to drop in to some church. There's plenty of room and a hearty welcome. Try it tomorrow, rain or shine, you may want to go again.

PRESS COMMENT.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: In Paterson, N. J., yesterday an automobile ran away with a trained nurse. That's nothing. Lots of men have done that.

Racine News: The Chinese expressions of gratitude to the powers for leaving the Imperial palace undisturbed remind us of the bank directors who thanked the absconding cashier for not wrecking the building.

Lake Mills Leader: The list of football casualties this fall, up to Monday, amounts to five killed and sixty-three injured, according to the Madison State Journal. Not a very great number, still it beats many of the battles in the Philippine war.

Racine Journal: The Republican platform of 1894 called for building up of our merchant marine. But it did not follow Republicans accepted the first ship subsidy bill that was presented. Just the opposite, the president with exceeding good taste did not for a minute try to force any detailed plan of his. This was left to the party, as should have been the primary election law measure in this state.

Hudson Star-Times: Now here is a proposition that is up to Dr. Fox of Madison. In as much as the Oregon farm is so much more of a health restorer than his pellets, why in the name of Col. Jerre Murphy didn't he send the governor out to the farm weeks ago.

Milwaukee Journal: The Wisconsin editors are at Hot Springs, but most of them will be able to look into the boiling water without fear. The G. O. P. press boys have learned at home during the last few months what hot water is.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Sampson expressed Commodore Schley's report of the victory over the Spanish fleet because it made no reference to the flag ship. It would have taken too much time to tell of all the people and ships that were not there.

Evening Wisconsin: It is several days since Booker T. Washington, lined at the White House, and since the Memphis fire-eaters called upon the democratic office-holders under the administration to resign. So far not enough vacancies have been developed to seriously embarrass the conduct of public business.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE STREET.

Women like to criticize men as a class and accept individuals without question.

No human being was ever so successful that he did not think he could have done more.

If it were not for reformers half the world would never know how unhappy they ought to be.

All things considered, we have cause for thanks that mankind is no worse, considering the temptations.

Nothing will disorganize and demoralize a business faster than the making of promotions for pull, instead of merit.—Milwaukee Journal.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

When some people attempt to jolly you, they make you mighty tired. Other people's love affairs seem so silly. But your own seems to be all right.

You have seen thousands of pictures of angels. Ever see a picture of a man angel.

Girls who wear fancy shoe strings shouldn't get mad if a man looks at their feet.

The worst robbers are the most respected men of civilization. Any merchant in town can tell you who they are.

Every time a man is married some woman says: "Well, goodness, gracious; them that want him can have him."

Every woman thinks before she has had a trial her influence would be next to hypnotic in getting a sick man to take his medicine.

Along about this time every year, ma and the girls get together, and decide that if pa's overcoat has a new collar on it, it will save buying a new one.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.
 Women judge another's engagement a good deal by the ring that goes with it.

Babies are pearls in a chain of matrimony that otherwise might seem a chain of bondage.

When a woman wants to cut the heart out of her best friend, she says her hair seems much softer and finer than when she was younger.

It takes an engaged couple a long time to say good-night, but not half so long as it does a woman and her caller to say good afternoon.—New York Press.

MUST HAVE GOOD ROADS.

Good roads are one of the features necessary to the establishment of rural free delivery routes. It is evident that the post office department meant business when it declared at the start that no free delivery routes would be maintained over poor roads. Not only must the roads be good in the beginning, but they must be kept in proper order, or the route will be abolished. An eastern postmaster recently received the following letter, which shows plainly the attitude of the postoffice department:

"Reports recently received show that the roads traveled by rural carrier from your office are in bad condition and likely to be impassable in bad weather. You will please notify the patrons of route 1 and 2 that the present lack of attention to these roads will, if continued, be likely to endanger the permanency of the rural free delivery service there."

"A rural carrier cannot possibly make regular time or perform efficient service over poor roads, particularly during the winter and spring months. The summer is the time for mending these highways, which are really serving as post roads, and which should always be in passable condition for the transport of the mail. It is the hope of the department that the patrons who are receiving the benefit of the service appreciate it, and that they will promptly co-operate in an effort to repair all deficient portions before winter sets in, so that the permanency of rural free delivery service may be insured."

Some Large Timbers Needed

The work on the buildings being built on West Milwaukee street by John Casey and Michael Turey is at a standstill on account of their not being able to get a number of large timbers needed in the construction of the building. The contractors neglected to notify the lumber dealers in time to get the heavy timbers shipped in.

FREE KINDERGARTEN

Organization Will Probably Be Completed Next Week—Opening Is Near at Hand.

The organization of the Kindergarten association for the support of a free kindergarten in this city will doubtless be perfected early next week and as soon as that is done everything is in readiness so that the kindergarten may be opened almost immediately. Unless something unforeseen occurs, a meeting of the members of the association will be called the first of the week at which time a constitution will be adopted and officers will be elected.

After this is done it will not take long to complete arrangements for the opening of the school. Applications have been received from three experienced kindergartners for the position of teacher and these will be turned over to the association for their decision. The kindergarten will doubtless be located for this winter in the Conrad block on South Main street, this room being the only available one that is centrally located and is large enough for the accommodation of the pupils. The room will be fitted up as prettily and attractively as possible and the equipment will be the best that the treasury of the association will warrant.

Like all philanthropic movements the process of perfecting the kindergarten association has been rather a slow one. The personal canvass planned at first could not be carried out as rapidly as was desirable if the kindergarten was to be started this year and so a few days ago the Rev. Robert C. Denison, who is the originator of the plan sent out a circular letter to prominent people of the city whose names had been furnished him by the committee of ladies who have taken such an active interest in the movement. The substance of the letter was to the effect that Janesville is behind the other cities in the state in the kindergarten matter. Belmont and even Milton having them in the public schools. A number of mothers have combined to secure a teacher and it has been deemed advisable to enlarge the plan and include a number of free pupils. The best way seems to be to organize an association which shall support the kindergarten and, through officers and committees, direct its affairs. The membership fee is three dollars or over and the association, when organized, is to have entire charge of the kindergarten.

Rev. Denison also noticed in this circular letter a fact which he wishes especially emphasized, that this movement is not in any sense a church affair but a practical work for the good of the city at large which he has taken up, not as pastor of the Congregational church, but as a citizen of Janesville and because no one else has started such a plan. Rev. Denison is deeply interested in kindergarten work and believes that when once it is well started and the people see its value, it will win its own way and eventually become an established part of the public school system.

Pledge slips were inclosed in the circular letter and people were requested to return them at their earliest convenience to Mr. Denison. Quite a number were returned the next day and many of the subscriptions were for $5, showing that there is a deep interest in the movement. Of course there are a large number of people to be heard from yet before the finances for the kindergarten are assured but the results so far have been sufficiently encouraging to seem to warrant the immediate perfection of the plan. If there are any people from whom subscriptions have not been solicited, who are willing to aid this educational enterprise, Mr. Denison will be very pleased to receive their names and subscriptions as early as possible.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF PRAYER TONIGHT

For fifteen minutes this evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a unique prayer service observed not only in this city but all over the state. At that time all Wisconsin Christian Endeavorers are expected to spend fifteen minutes in prayer for Mr. Eberman whom the state board is to send out through the state in the interests of the Christian Endeavor society. A union meeting of all the young peoples' societies will be held at the Congregational church tomorrow evening and A. E. Matheson, state president of the Wisconsin Y. P. S. C. E., will be the leader.

An Attractive Advertisement. Misses Marian and Clara Blodgett, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Blodgett have given the Parker Pen company a neat and very attractive advertisement. A photograph of the two little maidens with their lips parted and holding upright between them a large fountain pen, has been reproduced in half tone for magazine advertising and lithograph work. Above the heads of the young girls in fancy lettering are the words, "Singing the Praises" and below the picture the ad continues "of the Parker Lucky Curve Fountain pen." The Misses Blodgett are dressed in Greek gowns in the picture which is very pretty and artistic. Mr. Parker got the idea for the advertisement while watching the two girls sing together. He was attracted by the rapt expression on their faces and finally secured the consent of Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett to have their picture taken for advertising purposes, provided the names of the children were not used on the picture. It is quite an honor to Misses Marian and Clara to be the central figures in so unique an advertisement. The picture has already appeared in several late magazines including the Youth's Companion for the last week.

Rev. C. E. Roberts will meet Christ Church choir at the Parish House tonight at 7:15 for rehearsal. A full attendance is desired.

RECIPIENT OF A PILLOW PARTY

Mrs. F. H. Baack Was Given a Peculiar Welcome by Her Future Neighbors Last Night.

Mrs. F. H. Baack, who with her husband and children is soon to take possession of their new home on Court street was warmly welcomed into the neighborhood in which she is to reside in a peculiar but very pleasant manner last evening. When she was invited to be the guest of Mrs. Charles P. McLean at a company in which about a dozen other ladies were to participate, Mrs. Baack did not mistrust that there was a secret understanding between the hostess and the rest of the guests which she was not permitted to share. But such an understanding existed and the result was that Mrs. Baack was made the victim of a pillow party, a new and unique departure in Janesville social events.

After all of Mrs. McLean's guests had assembled last evening, Mrs. Baack was called from the parlor on some pretext and when she returned she was besieged on all sides in a manner that doubtless reminded her forcibly of the days of childhood and its pillow fights. Being of a forgiving nature, Mrs. Baack did not return the attack but took all the blows without retaliation, the result being that she is now the proud owner of a collection of handsome sofa pillows with which to beautify her new home.

Each pillow was the handiwork of one of the ladies who were Mrs. McLean's guests and Mrs. Baack will prize them very highly as an unusual token of the affection of her friends.

Mrs. McLean entertained her guests very handsomely at an elegant six o'clock supper after which the evening was pleasantly devoted to playing cards.

ARREST ROBBER IN BELOIT TODAY

A party giving name of Jack Strand was arrested this morning at Beloit by Officer Richard C. Schelbel for the robbery of a man by the name of Wilson in this city of $65 on Wednesday night. Strand confessed the robbery when arrested but said that he only took $53. Chief Hogan went to Beloit this afternoon to get the prisoner and bring him here for examination.

It seems that Wilson met Strand last Wednesday night on the street in this city and took him to his room to keep him over night. During the night Strand got up and went through Wilson's clothes securing, as he claims, $53. He skipped out and took the 4:30 train for Chicago where he invested the money in clothes and a good time. This morning he left Chicago and was on the train that gets here at 11:47.

When the train reached Beloit two Janesville men got aboard and recognized Strand as the man that robbed Wilson. They found Officer Schelbel at the station and he took Strand in custody and landed him in the lock-up. He at once telegraphed Chief Hogan and he left for Beloit to secure the prisoner.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY; NOTHING SO JOLLY

Merriest of These Happy Occasions Took Place at the Congregational Church Last Night.

There is nothing more jolly than a Halloween party where the queer superstitions and quaint customs of the times are observed and one of the merriest of these happy occasions happened at the Congregational church last evening under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. The first part of the evening was devoted to a very fine musical and literary program. Misses Cora Putnam and Agnes Griebel sang a duet beautifully. Miss Belle Angell delighted the audience with her sweet singing of a pretty love song and the audience also found special pleasure in a vocal selection artistically rendered by Mesdames Minnie Menzies, W. S. Jeffris, S. B. Lewis and Miss Franc Edwards. An exquisite violin solo by Carlos Correllou so charmed the audience that an encore was demanded and given. Miss Hattie Decker, who recited "The Courtship of Malvina" very pleasingly, was also compelled to respond to an encore. She complied by reciting the "Bear Story," showing herself a talented elocutionist in both selections. Miss Marguerite Eggleston also contributed an excellent number to the program by reciting "The Song of the Camp."

After the program the Halloween revelries began. The gas was turned low and the room was illuminated by Jack-o'-lanterns and the weird lights made by burning salt saturated with alcohol. Much amusement was created by the traditional Halloween games, such as "bobbing for apples" in tubs of water, trying to bite apples suspended from a string without the use of the hands, and working charms with chestnuts. Fortunes were told by a marvelously gifted fortune teller who lived in a grotesque, abounding in skeletons, skulls and other pleasant reminders of the fate that is sure to come to all.

The merriest of the evening came to a climax when a witch appeared bearing the charmed cake which she cut amid the most impressive ceremonies. The piece containing the gold ring fell to the lot of Miss Nettie Kent, who according to the superstition is thus destined to become a bride within a year. The social was a complete success and much credit is due the hard working committee to whom the work of preparation fell.

J. C. Paige, of Chicago, who purchased the Paine homestead near the golf grounds, is making extensive improvements in the property. When completed he will have an ideal summer home. His coachman in charge of several heavy draft horses arrived in the city last night.

A DAILY NUISANCE.

A Simple Remedy Which Will Inter-est Catarrh Sufferers.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later, the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucus, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastin, Eucalyptol, and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large pleasant tasting lozenges, taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application, and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

Hunting Match for a Supper

The shooting men of Edgerton and the vicinity are arranging an annual hunting match for a supper. A meeting of the shooters is called for Monday, Nov. 4 at 8 o'clock at the Carlton at which time team captains and members of the opposing sides will be chosen. According to the list of points given for each kind of game killed, it seems that mud hens are considered equal to red heads, mallard and teal and superior to all other ducks except canvas back. Mud hens, red heads, mallards and teal count twenty-five each in the score and ducks of other varieties fifteen points, except the canvas back and they count fifty. There will probably be more mud hens killed during the hunt than any other kind of bird so it is well to give them a high place on the list. A number of Janesville sportsmen now stopping at Lake Koshkonong will take part in the hunt and banquet.

Peanuts in Wisconsin

Wisconsin having within a comparatively few years demonstrated that it is a great tobacco growing state, and that it could produce a brand of cheese superior to Canadian article that heads the list at Liverpool, a small band of agriculturists in the northern part of the state propose to add another laurel to the record by growing a big crop of peanuts for next year's market, and preparations to that end are now under way in two of the so-called pine forest counties. It is said that not less than 100 acres will be planted, and that it is expected that the harvest will show at least 200 bushels to the acre.

Potatoes Are in Demand

The farmers in the potato district—Waupaca county—are besieged this fall with buyers, who are unusually active on account of the short crop all over the country, and the entire crop of Waupaca, variously estimated at between 1,000,000 and 1,250,000 bushels, is going rapidly to the Chicago South Water street houses at fancy prices offered at the farm or on the road to the city. The buyers are in the field in large numbers, and they are paying prices ranging all the way from 35 to 40 cents for the best grades.

FOOTBALL TODAY IN EAST AND WEST

Madison Will Handle Nebraska, and Beloit Has a Hard Proposition at Chicago.

There will be several interesting contests on college gridirons, both East and West today. With the 1st of November the big teams will begin to get near the top notch form and their schedules change from mere practice games to what may be called polishing matches to prepare for the final struggles of the year. In the west the Wisconsin Nebraska game is of importance because of the line of comparison it will give between the Badgers and the Gophers who defeated Nebraska 19 to 0 a fortnight ago. Illinois and Indiana will have a battle royal down in Indianapolis, in which the men from Campagin will try to get a little salvage for their pride, so seriously wounded last Saturday Michigan will meet the Carlisle Indians, and, while Coach Yost forecasts a hard game for his proteges, it is well known that the red skins are not up to their old standard. Beloit comes to Chicago feeling hopeful. Stagg is after their scalp.

In the East the principal game is that between Princeton and Cornell. Harvard has an easy mark in Brown, as cores have been going on in the games the Providence men have played against the big eleven. Yale makes a trip to West Point with a little less confidence than was felt before the soldiers held Harvard down to a single touchdown by means of Daly's great punting. The games today are as follows:

Chicago—Beloit at Marshall Field.
Michigan—Carlisle Indians at Detroit.
Wisconsin—Nebraska at Milwaukee.
Minnesota—Haskell Indians at Minneapolis.
Illinois—Indiana at Indianapolis.
Iowa—Knox at Iowa City.
Purdue—C se at Lafayette.
Grinnell—Ames at Ames.
Notre Dame—Lake Forest at South Bend.
Princeton—Cornell at Ithaca.
Yale—West Point at West Point.
Harvard—Brown at Cambridge.
Pennsylvania—Columbia at New York.
Dartmouth—Wesleyan at Hanover, N. H.

Kodol

Digests what you Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

Dyspeptics cannot regain health and strength by living upon half rations. They must eat plenty of good food and digest it. To enable them to do this they should use something that will help the stomach do its work. KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE is such a preparation. It digests what you eat and supplies the substances needed to build up the worn out digestive organs.

Prof. J. Iverson, of Lonaconing, Md., says: "For thirteen years I suffered agony from dyspepsia and neuralgia of the stomach. I tried almost everything and doctors drugged me nearly to death with morphine, but temporary relief was all I could obtain till I was advised to use KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. The first dose gave me relief. I bought my first bottle in March, 1900, and I have not had a single pain since." "It has completely cured me. I cannot endorse it too highly."

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The 51c bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c size. The favorite household remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, throat and lung troubles is ONE MINUTE Cough Cure. It cures quickly. Above Preparations sold by MCUE & BUSS

A Life Saver.

People who are particular to carefully guard against stomach, liver and bowel troubles, never have headaches, days of feeling "blue" or any of the dangerous complications resulting from a constipated condition. To allow the continuation of constipation, is to infuse the blood and general system with poison. You will be sure to have perfect health if you take the famous "corrective" laxative. Don't wait for a severe headache or a bilious attack. Get a bottle (50 cents and $1.00) to-day, from your druggist. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound is never sold in bulk. It is very pleasant to take. Pleasant in effect. Look for Dr. Caldwell's face on every package.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

It is a Life Saver.

Thousands of letters from grateful people in every part of the country prove this. We will be glad to send a sample bottle and a very interesting little book on stomach troubles free, if you will mention your symptoms.

PEPSIN SYRUP COMPANY, Monticello, Ill.

Told by Pain

If you have pains you should look after them quickly. Pain shows something is wrong. The sharper the pain the more danger there is in delay. There are thousands of women to-day who are bearing awful pain almost continually, rather than tell a physician about the shooting pains in their lower abdomen, about the agony of falling of the womb and the distress of leucorrhoea. They let the months pass and their trouble becomes harder to cure and more distressing. But modest women can secure exemption from the embarrassment of a private examination. When pain tells them of danger they can cure themselves by the use of in the privacy of their homes. You can be cured without distressing publicity. With these facts before you there is no reason for the delay which is increasing your misery and wasting the days of your life. Why not stop the pain today?

I have used one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Theodore's Black-Draught. Before I began to take your medicines I had pains in my back, hips, lower bowels and my arms. Sometimes I thought I would go blind. My head ached and I was so weak I could hardly walk across the floor. Now I can only feel a little of the pain in my side and I am going to use your medicines until I get cured, for I believe they will certainly cure me. I have been married twelve years and am the mother of seven children. I thank you for your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me.

BOY IMITATES PAT CROWE.

Montana 12-Year-Old Kidnaped Grocer's Son.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 2.—A special to the Independent from Great Falls says that a 12-year-old boy named Southwick kidnaped the 6-year-old son of G. W. Ryan, a prominent grocer of that city, and sent a note to the father demanding $1,500 ransom, threatening to ram fine pieces of glass into the child's eyes and cut his hands off unless the demand was complied with. Mr. Ryan notified the police, who arrested young Southwick shortly after the Ryan boy had arrived at his father's store unharmed, having been released by Southwick. Southwick confessed that he did the deed of his own volition and that he had no accomplices. He expressed no repentance and said: "I would have hit the old man for $3,000 if I thought he would have stood for it."

SOCIAL POSITION

Makes no Difference. Women are All Alike. No Matter What Their Station in Life May Be. All Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If she is one of the favored daughters of wealth,—if she belongs even to the realm of the "well-to-do,"—or—if she belongs to the unnumbered thousands who must work in order to live—the story is just the same; all suffer from about the same cause, and in this suffering "peculiar to women," all reach the same level, and all are of the same family.

When a woman is nervous and irritable, head and back ache, feels tired all the time, loses sleep and appetite, has pains in groins, bearing down sensation, whites and irregularities, she is not "worn out," but feels as if she were.

Such symptoms tell her that a womb trouble is imminent, and she cannot act too promptly if she values her future comfort and happiness.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., as thousands do.

Mrs. Pinkham Tells Mrs. Scott How to be Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been for some years a great sufferer and thought I would write and explain my case to you as you had helped so many others. Menstruation is irregular and very painful. I have suffered with painful periods for ten years but the pains grow worse as I grow older.

"I suffer most with my back, lower part of abdomen and left side. I have been flowing all the month and a part of August, not constantly, but will stop for two or three days and then begin again.

"The doctor says I have misplacement of the womb. I have bearing down pains when passing urine, and my abdomen is very badly swollen and sore. Please advise me at your earliest convenience."—Mrs. A. V. Scott, 21 Page St., Kingston, Pa. (Sept. 30, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you asking advice no one could describe my suffering. The doctors said I could not be relieved unless I had an operation performed, but thanks to you and your medicine I got along without having the dreaded operation. I have taken ten bottles of your medicine and am once more well and happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a fine medicine and a God-send to suffering women. I trust my letter may be the means of bringing many of my suffering sisters to accept your kind aid."—Mrs. A. V. Scott, 21 Page St., Kingston, Pa. (Jan. 30, 1901.)

Remember Mrs. Pinkham's advice is free, and all sick women are foolish if they do not ask for it. No other person has such vast experience, and has helped so many women.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can find the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

FISHING IS GOOD AT INDIAN FORD

Indian Ford parties report the fishing to be the best in years both above and below the dam. Parties from there report large quantities of pike being caught above the dam between it and the footbridge. One fisherman by the name of Higgins caught a pike yesterday that tipped the scales at 8 1/2 pounds. Quite a number of smaller fish were caught they being pickerel and bass. Most of the fish being caught on the upper side of the dam shows that they are running down from Lake Koshong. A number of fishermen from this city are planning to go up to the Ford tomorrow and try their luck.

EXTENSION OF THE ST. PAUL SYSTEM

Control of the Chicago Great Northern Means Much Benefit to That Railroad.

It is learned that in the negotiations for the transfer of the control of the Chicago Great Western Railroad to new interests a hitch has occurred, but that it is of such slight nature that it cannot possibly interfere with the consummation of the deal. As to the interest which is to absorb the Great Western property it comes positively from a reliable quarter that it is the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. Recent stories that the Northwestern and Rock Island would take over the smallest line jointly were given out, it is understood as a blind.

Acquirement of the Great Western by the St. Paul will mark the beginning of a new era in the development of the latter property, it is declared. Where it is practical the Great Western will be used to relieve the present main lines of the St. Paul of a part of their heavy traffic, and these lines will be given more to the handling of passenger business and will be improved so as to encourage growth in that class of the traffic. The St. Paul will build far into the northwest through the Black Hills to Helena and Butte, and the present Kansas City division will be shortened, work to that end already having been begun.

An authority on St. Paul says the results attending the construction of the branch from Libertyville, Ill., to the Fox Lake region were far beyond anticipations and really opened the eyes of the management to possibilities in the way of growth and development throughout the system.

Misses E. E. and R. E. Blanchard have returned from a two months' visit in the East. The Misses Blanchard visited Philadelphia, White Mountains, Vermont, Niagara and Buffalo.
